Building and Standards Commission functioning as a Jury:

Mr. Bob Hager, a Legal Attorney, from Dallas Texas, specializing in City Government discussed the importance of functioning as a Jury. Mr. Hager suggested all witnesses be sworn in before each hearing. Mr. Hager recommended the owner of the property or witness file any documents pertaining to their property before the scheduled hearing. Hearings should be based on the evidence presented for each property as it relates to the Building Codes.

Building and Standards Commission Members, as well as staff, are in agreement with Mr. Hager's legal guidance pertaining to the role of a commission member, importance of working as a Jury, and Inspections examined by the Chief Building Official.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:15 p.m.

Corey Floyd, Chairman
Building and Standards Commission

Tiffany Dodd,
Construction Demolition,
Administrative Assistant
